

Association for Rural and Small Libraries Annual Conference

Dynamic Conference Speakers

George Needham, Vice President, OCLC Member Services
To See Ourselves As Others See Us

Jessamyn West, community technology librarian in rural Vermont
Tiny Libraries, Tiny Tech

Bill Harmer, Head of Adult Services, Chelsea District Library
Library Journal's Best Small Library Award Winner
Serving Seniors: Giving Them What They Want

Susan Hildreth, State Librarian of California and past PLA president

Nadia Gordon, author of the Sunny McCoskey Napa Valley mystery series
Sex, Wine, and Air Conditioning: The Seductive Power of the Local Library

A Sampling of Great Workshop Sessions

*Visit www.webjunction.org/arsl for complete listing

- » Top 10 Things You Can Do Now to Improve Your Collection
- » TheirSpace: Using Technology to Reach Kids and Teens Where They Already Are
- » Mining for Gold: Maximizing Community Resources for Exciting Events
- » Self Service on a Budget
- » Off the Grid: Services to Customers Who Have no Access to Modern Amenities
- » Successful Library Fundraising in a Rural Community
- » I Wanna Be 2.0 Too! Web Services for Smaller or Underfunded Libraries

Fun Networking Opportunities

Arriving in Sacramento the night before conference with no dinner plans? No problem! Here's a chance to make new friends, try a new restaurant, and see a little of California's capital! Join fellow conference goers for dinner on Thursday night, in groups of 8-11.

visit www.webjunction.org/arsl for more information