1. Let me tell you some thing 'bout a place I know, you can find one al - most an - y where you go It could be down the street could be down the hall you know I've ev - ven seen 'em in the mall. You can walk with your feet if it's not too far, or get your mom or dad to take you in the car

Ev' ry thing is free there wai - tin' in the stacks, They'll let you bring it home, but you've got - ta bring it back.

At your li - bra - ry! There's so much to see, so much to do

21 C G F G C

At your li - bra - ry there's a whole big world just wai-ting for you

25 C G F G

At your li - bra - ry there's so much to do so much to see__

29 C G F G C

At your li - bra - ry if you're gon-na go, then you got-ta take me

2. You go to the library, you walk in the door
 It's like walking in a jungle that you've got to explore
 So much to learn, so much to know
 There's something calling to you everywhere you go There's magazines and dvds and anywhere you look
 There are thousands and thousands and thousands of books
 If that's not enough, then don't forget
 You can always go surfin' on the internet!
3. They've got funny tales and fairy tales
 And very, very scary tales
 Books about the weather and snow and rain and when it hails
 Books about cats and mice and dogs
 And hogs and logs and bogs and frogs and even little pollywogs
 There's a billion things, I know that I have missed some
 But you can look 'em up with the Dewey Decimal system
 Everything is yours, it's not that hard
 All you've gotta get is a library card!
