

YS - courses include both YA and Juv

Created 12/05

SCHOOL NAME	COURSE TITLE	BRIEF DESCRIPTION	YS or YA
University of Alabama	LS 620. Advanced Materials and Programming for Youth	The course explores the psychological and sociological implications of the development of programs and services for children and young adults.	YS
University of Alabama	LS 522. Materials and Services for Young Adults	Explores materials (print and non-print) and programs appropriate for teenagers	YA
State University of New York Albany	IST 578: Literature for Young Adults	An introductory survey of literature for young adults (ages 13-18), with an emphasis on authors from the latter half of the twentieth-century.	YA
University of Alberta,	LIS 515 Materials for Young Adults	Materials for young adults of junior and senior high school age, young adults' reading interests, and current trends and issues in young adults' literature	YA
University of Alberta,	LIS 516 Canadian Children's Literature for Young People in Schools and Libraries	A survey of Canadian children's materials from books for babies to those aimed at the young adult market. Focus on contemporary works, trends in both publishing and content, and issues such as censorship, multimedia forms and the Internet.	YS

University of Alberta,	LIS 518 Comic Books and Graphic Novels in School and Public Libraries	Examines the history and contemporary reality of Comic Book publishing and readership in Canada, Great Britain, Japan and the United States, and issues related to the perception of the format of educators, librarians, and readers. Focus on collection development, censorship concerns and challenges, gender issues in both readership and content, genres, and impact of the Internet	YS
University of Alberta,	LIS 548 Library Services to Children and Young Adults	The principles and practices of library service to children and young adults.	YS
University of Arizona,	521. CHILDREN'S AND YOUNG ADULT LITERATURE IN A MULTICULTURAL SOCIETY	Survey of a wide variety of children's and young adult literature with emphasis on bilingual/multilingual, multicultural, and multiethnic literature. Using children's and young adult literature to develop literacy, particularly for English language learners will also be studied	YS
University of Arizona,	582. YOUNG ADULTS AND PUBLIC LIBRARIES	This course will enable students to examine the full range of skills needed for working with young adults in today's public library. It will provide theory and practice and give students a framework for thinking about services to young adults. Assignments are designed to have students work in teams and often require connections with young adults, fellow professionals and community representatives	YA

University of Arizona,	IRLS695H Children's and Young Adult Literature in a Multicultural Society	Children's and young adult literature will be studied with an emphasis on notable author's, poets, and illustrators who have contributed to bilingual, multilingual, and multicultural, and multiethnic collections. Various types of children's and young adult literature will be examined and criteria for selection and renewing collections for school and public libraries will be discussed.	YS
University of British Columbia	LIBR 524: Literature And Other Materials For Young Adults	The goal of this course is to provide students with the knowledge and appreciation of young adult literature in print, audiovisual, and electronic format and criteria for the selection and evaluation of young adult materials required for the development of a young adult collection and young adult readers advisory service	YA
University of British Columbia	LIBR 539D: Specialized Materials: Electronic Resources for Children and Young Adults	This course focuses on electronic resources for children and young adults in library settings.	YS
University of British Columbia	LIBR 542B: Services For Youth: Young Adults	The goal of this course is to provide students with the knowledge required to plan, implement, and evaluate a program of public library services for young adults.	YA

State University of New York Buffalo	LIS 535 Resources and Services for Young Adults	A study of literature and other media produced for young adults. Includes an introduction to adolescent psychology, lifestyles, and interests and how these impact young adults and their reading/viewing habits. Students will learn to evaluate and promote materials according to their various uses, both personal and curricular, and according to the needs of individual young adults. Alternate Summers	YA
University of California Los Angeles	426 Library Services & Literature for Youth	Lecture, four hours. Overview of literature and programs which are of interest to young adults (seventh grade and above). Discussion of special problems in working with young people and psychology of the teenager.	YS
Catholic University of America	LSC 855: Media for Adolescents	Evaluation and selection of materials as well as techniques for providing reading guidance to adolescents in school library media centers and public libraries. Emphasis on contemporary literature suited to the personal and recreational needs and interests of young people.	YS

Clarion University of Pennsylvania	LS 583: LIBRARIES, LITERATURE, AND YOUNG ADULTS	Examination of the role of the librarian in the selection, evaluation, and use of materials for junior and senior high school age persons. Includes a study of young adult literature and trends affecting its development; techniques for providing reader advisory services; methods of reaching and serving multicultural and special needs audiences; characteristics of the young adult in contemporary society; and development of programs and other means of introducing young adults to book and non-book media, with special attention to emerging electronic products and services.	YA
Clarion University of Pennsylvania	LS 356: MEDIA FOR YOUNG ADULTS	Examines literature and other resources for young adults, including principles related to the selection, evaluation, and use of such materials. Considers and analyzes the reading interests of teenagers, the characteristics of young adult literature, and methods of introducing young adults to books and nonbook resources, including electronic products and services. Examines techniques of developing/preparing booktalks, reviews, reader advisory services, and other programs for young adults, with attention being paid to underserved and special needs groups. Biennially	YA
Dalhousie University	LIBS 6250 Services and Resources for Young Adults	Introduces the social, intellectual and psychological nature of adolescence, with respect to reading, listening and viewing interests.	YA

University of Denver	LIS 4520 Adolescent Literature	This course prepares librarians to work with adolescents (ages 12-18) in school and public libraries. Topics covered are: adolescent development, reading interests and needs, materials selection, collection development (including print and non-print materials), and discussions of specific genres, reading motivation skills, designing a YA area, programming, and intellectual freedom issues. Participants will read/view/listen to and evaluate a wide variety of materials for and about this age group, prepare and present booktalks, become familiar with review sources, and design a one-year plan for a YA department in a small school or public library.	YS
Dominican University	LIS 722 Library Materials for Young Adults	Selection, evaluation and use of media for young adults in middle and senior high schools and public libraries. Materials in curricular areas are studied along with an examination of the relationships of materials to developmental characteristics and individual differences of young adults in contemporary society, to curriculum and recreation, to the exceptional young adult and to a multicultural society. Prerequisites or co-requisites	YA

Dominican University	LIS 723 SERVICES FOR CHILDREN AND YOUNG ADULTS	Introduction to the planning, promotion, implementation and evaluation of literature sharing services for children and young adults in school and public libraries. Emphasis is placed on techniques, such as presenting parent/teacher workshops, storytelling, presenting book talks and story programming.	YS
Emporia State University	LI 832 - Information Resources and Programs for Young Adults	Analysis of young adults' (age 11-18) recreational, cultural, informational, educational, and research needs as evidenced in society and reflected in their information sources	YA
Florida State University	LIS 5565 Information Needs of Young Adults	Study of media for young adults in relation to their characteristics, needs, interests and abilities. Evaluation and use of printed and audiovisual materials.	YA
Florida State University	LIS 5565 Information Needs of Young Adults	Study of media for young adults in relation to their characteristics, needs, interests and abilities. Evaluation and use of printed and audiovisual materials.	YA
University of Hawaii	LIS 682 Books & Media for Young Adults	History and criticism of literature for young adults. Contemporary books and media. Trends in media for young adults. Developmental need and interests of adolescents. Selection and evaluation. Research studies	YA
University of Illinois,	LIS 404Lit and Resources Young Adults	No Description available	YA
University of Illinois,	LIS 506 Youth Services Librarianship	No Description available	YS

Indiana University	L533: Library Materials for Children and Young Adults	Evaluation and use of books, magazines, recordings, films, radio and television broadcasts, and other sources of information and recreation.	YS
Indiana University	L535: Library Services for Children and Young Adults	This course emphasizes the history, philosophy, and description of children and young adult library services. It takes a holistic look at the role of the youth services librarian from planning and evaluation to specific services and programs, and examines the current and future outlook for this type of librarianship. Emphasis is on the public library, but cooperation with appropriate services and programs such as school media centers is also discussed.	YS
Indiana University	L633: Seminar on Issues and Trends in Children's or Young Adult Literature	An advanced seminar, addresses such topics as: images of minority groups, societal problems (e.g., poverty and family patterns), or informational needs and materials including access and availability of print, nonprint, and computer resources. May be repeated for credit when topic varies	YS
University of Iowa	21:144. Resources for Young Adults		YA
University of Iowa	246. Youth Programming		YS
Kent State University	60626 LIBRARY SERVICES TO YOUNG ADULTS	Selection and utilization of books and materials in relation to needs, abilities and interests of young adults	YA
Kent State University	60630 REFERENCE SOURCES AND SERVICES FOR YOUTH	Organization and administration of information sources and information services for children and young adults (K-12). Evaluation, selection and utilization of print and electronic sources. Prerequisite: LIS 60001 recommended	YS

Kent State OH	60626 Lib. Ser. To Young Adults	Selection of materials and programs for young adults.	YA
Kent State OH	60630 Res. Sources and Services for Youth	Reference for K-12.	YS
U of Kentucky	514 Info. and Services for Young Adults	Information and services for ages 12 - 20	YA
Long Island University	729-01 Young Adult Sources and Services	Emphasis on YA literature, but includes programming, partnerships, advocacy	YA
Louisiana State	7102 Media and Services for Young Adults	Literature and programming for Yas 15 - 18 yrs. Old. For schools and public libraries	YA
Louisiana State	7103 Media and Services for Young Adolescents	Adol. Development, literature and services for 11 - 14 year olds.	YS
U of Maryland	646 Literature and Materials for Young Adults	Literature for Young Adults in different formats	YA
U of Maryland	748 Advanced Seminar in Children's Literature	In-depth literature for children and YAs	YS
MaGill University	NONE
U of Michigan	SI 624 Media for Children and Young Adults	Explores cultural climate for children and young adults related to literature and other media	YS
U of Missouri-Columbia	9434 Lib. Materials for Teens	Literature in different formats for teens	YA
U of Missouri-Columbia	9433 Youth Services In Libraries	Programming and outreach for K - 12	YS
U of Missouri-Columbia	9410 Latino Lit. for Children and Teens	Emphasis on Latino Literature - special topic class	YS
U of Montreal	NONE
U North Carolina - CH	INLS 122 YA Literature	Literature and other media for young adults	YA
U North Carolina - GN	618 Materials for Adolescents	Materials teens read, listen to and view	YA
U North Carolina - GN	663 Library Services for Young People	Programming and issues for children and teens	YS
North Carolina Central University	4505 Survey of Lit. for Children and Adolescents	Materials for children and teens	YS
North Carolina Central University	5525 Adolescent Resources and Services	Materials and services appropriate for teens	YA

U of North Texas	5420 Literature for Youth	Materials for children and teens	YS
U of North Texas	5430 Info. Services for Youth	Programs for children and teens	YS
U Oklahoma	5373 Books and Materials for Young Adults	Selection of materials for young adults	YA
U Oklahoma	5353 Selection	Selection of materials for children, YA, adult	YS
U Pittsburgh	2323 Materials for Young Adults	Overview of current trends in YA materials and how to promote them	YA
Pratt Institute	677 Literature and Literacy for Young Adults	Adolescent development and materials for YA	YA
Pratt Institute	678 Library Services for Children	Planning and administration of programming for children and YA	YS
U of Puerto Rico	6125 Information Resources for Children and Young Adults	Materials and issues for children and young adults in school and public libraries	YS
Queens College, CUNY	737 Lit. for Children and YA	Overview of materials for children and Yas	YS
Queens College, CUNY	739 Lit. for Young Adults	Literature for Young Adults in different formats	YA
Queens College, CUNY	738 Mythology and Folklore for Children and Young Adults	Promoting historical lit. for young people	YS
Queens College, CUNY	767 Reading Motivation Techniques for Children and Young Adults	Promoting reading and literacy for young people	YS
Queens College, CUNY	777 Planning and Delivering YA Services in the Public Library	Developing complete YA Services in the public library - collection, programming, partnerships	YA
U Rhode Island	531 Reading Interest of Young Adults	Develop collections based on interests in different formats such as graphic novels, internet	YA
U Rhode Island	533 Digital Resources for Children and Young Adults	Looks at resources on Internet for information and entertainment; how to promote info. literacy	YS
U Rhode Island	535 Public Library Youth Services	Development of programs for children and young adults	YS

Rutgers University	516-Children's and Youth Services	Design, planning, implementation, and management of programs and services based on cognitive and developmental abilities. Emphasis on research and evaluation. Study of information services for, and advocacy on behalf of, young people	YS
Rutgers University	548-Materials for Young Adults	Evaluation and selection of materials based on literary criteria and the biological, sociocultural, psychological, and developmental characteristics of young adults; guidance in their use. Emphasis on gender-fair and multicultural materials and the attitudes, interests, problems, and opportunities of young adults in contemporary society.	YA
San Jose State University	LIBR 264. Seminar in Services to Children and Youth	Seminar in planning, developing, and evaluating youth services in public libraries. Special needs of children and youth in the public library, liaison with schools, reference services, and collection planning will be featured	YS
San Jose State University	LIBR 262. Resources for Young Adults	Materials for adolescents and preadolescents and methods for incorporating these materials into library programs. Collection development, needs assessment, and programming will be featured. Information services for young adults in a variety of settings will also be addressed.	YA

Simmons College	LIS 531L - Library Programs and Services for Young Adults	This course examines the planning and delivery of information and recreational services to meet the diverse needs of young people between the ages of 12 and 18 in public libraries and school library/media centers. Examination of the developmental tasks of adolescents and relevant social, education, and demographic trends. Emphasis on the development of library policies and collaboration with youth serving community agencies. Attention to communication and program skills and the promoting, funding, and evaluating of library programs and services for teenagers.	YA
Simmons College	LIS 483 - Young Adult Literature (formerly "Libraries, Contemporary Society, and the Adolescent")	This course explores the social and psychological needs and attitudes of adolescents and the literature created especially for this demographic. This class emphasizes the evaluation, selection and oral presentation of books and non-print materials for young people between the ages of 12 and 18. Special attention is paid to the developmental tasks of this age group with an eye towards literary recommendation. Topics of discussion include the literacy practices of young adults, popular literature for teen readers, and the use of specialized selection materials to develop collections in school and public libraries.	YA

University of South Carolina	754 Library Programming for Children and Young Adults.	The nature, philosophy and development of non-curricular programs for children and young adults in the school and public library. Among the types of programs to be discussed are storytelling, film programs, reading programs, programs for parents, and other activities associated with library service to young people. Students will study the principles and problems involved in designing, implementing, and evaluating programs of this nature.	YS
University of South Carolina	757 Young Adult Materials.	A study of materials for young adults (13-19) with emphasis on the process of evaluating them to meet the educational, cultural, and recreational needs of young adults.	YA
University of South Carolina	767 Management of Public Library Youth Services.	Planning, implementation and evaluation of public library services for children and young adults.	YS
University of South Florida	LIS 6565 BOOKS AND RELATED MATERIALS FOR YOUNG ADULTS	Young adult materials for use in secondary school libraries, young adult sections of public libraries, and other institutions serving youth. Equal emphasis upon (1) selection principles and bibliographical sources, as well as upon (2) utilization in terms of service to the young adult.	YA
University of South Florida	LIS 6212 READING GUIDANCE PROGRAMS IN LIBRARIES AND CLASSROOMS	Working with factors and forces influencing reading habits of children and youth; programs for teaching investigative and library skills materials and methods for guidance of reading, listening, and viewing.	YS

St. John's University	128-LIBRARY SERVICES FOR YOUNG ADULTS	Serving young adults in the public library; identifying users needs, developing booktalking skills,planning programs, providing services,designing policies and guidelines, and maintaining collections.	YA
St. John's University	213-Popular Culture and the Young Adult	An exploration of contemporary, popular entertainment media oriented towards and accepted by adolescents,with emphasis on film,television, music,magazines, and the internet.	YA
St. John's University	216-Youth Literature:A Critical Approach	An examination of selected books for children and young adults, with emphasis on the study of literary elements and the application of critical analysis.`	YS
St. John's University	226-Literature and Related Resources for Young Adults	A survey of books and other materials for young adults with emphasis on applying selection criteria and developing evaluation skills.	YA