

Teens Leading Change: Media Lit Now!

Bibliography

- Burkhardt, J.M. (2017) Combating fake news in the digital age. Chicago: ALA.
- Cooke, N.A. (2018) Fake news and alternative facts: information literacy in a post-truth era. Chicago: ALA.
- Doyle, E. (Ed.). (2019) Media bias and the role of the press. New York, NY: Greenhaven Publishing.
- Head, A., et al. (2018, October 16). How students engage with news: five takeaways for educators, journalists, and librarians. Project Information Literacy Research Institute. Retrieved from https://www.projectinfolit.org/news_study.html
- Housand, B.C. (2018) Fighting fake news! Teaching critical thinking and media literacy in a digital age. Waco, TX: Prufrock.
- Louhtala, M. and Whiting, J. (2018) News Literacy: the keys to combating fake news. Santa Barbara, CA: Libraries Unlimited.
- Miller, M. (2019) Fake news: separating truth from fiction. Minneapolis, MN: Lerner Publishing Group.
- Vance, L. (2018) Fake news and media bias. New York, NY: Lucent Press.

Online Resources

- Anchor, <https://anchor.fm>
Free podcasting app for iOS and Android.
- Canva, <https://www.canva.com/>
Free and pro version of graphic-design tool Web site.
- National Association for Media Literacy Education, <https://namle.net/>
National organization dedicated to media literacy.
- NewseumEd, <https://newseumed.org/>
Free resources to educators, includes lesson plans and videos, as well as copyrighted materials.
- Pixabay, <https://pixabay.com/>
Free photos, free-to-use Web site for sharing photos, illustrations, vectors graphics, and film footage.